Course Description:

This course is designed to fill the gap between basic first aid training and the training of EMS professionals and will introduce the student to the professional practice of an emergency medical responder in a variety of occupational settings. Students receive instruction on the history of the emergency medical profession, roles and responsibilities, operations and equipment, and the medical, legal, and ethical dimensions of the profession. The use of proper medical terminology with a basic overview of physiology is presented. The student also receives instruction on human anatomy and life span development, and public health. The course concludes the EMR role in various types of injuries. This course provides the foundation the student must have to successfully progress into the Emergency Medical Services field.

Prerequisites: EMSE 1001

Co-requisites: None

Learning Outcomes:

On completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Use simple knowledge of the EMS system, safety/well-being of EMR, and medical/legal issues at scene of an emergency while awaiting a higher level of care.
2. Describe and demonstrate basic skills necessary to function as an EMR.
3. Demonstrate an awareness and respect for cultural differences and diversity with respect to the human body.
4. Exhibit an awareness of local public health resources and the role EMS personnel play in public health emergencies.
5. Exhibit knowledge necessary to pass the State of Louisiana Bureau of EMS Emergency Medical Responder examination.

Assessment Measures: To be provided by College Campus.

Library Resource Center:

The Delta Library and Learning Resource Center is committed to providing quality information and learning resources and services, including technology, in supporting the overall mission of Louisiana Delta Community College and its commitment to lifelong learning.

Special Accommodations:

Louisiana Delta Community College complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, as well as the Americans with Disabilities Act. Students with disabilities who attend the Monroe campus may make a request by contacting the Director of Counseling and Disability Services (See College Directory for contact information.) at the beginning of each semester. Reasonable accommodations will be attempted for students with documented disabilities. If an impairment is identified later in the semester, a non-retroactive accommodation plan will be developed. Students at satellite campuses should contact the Coordinator of Student Affairs at their particular campus.

Title IX:

Louisiana Delta Community College is committed to protecting the rights of students, which includes compliance with Title IX requirements. As such, the institution and members of our community will not tolerate the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Students with Title IX concerns should contact the College's Title IX Coordinator (See College Directory for contact information.) Students are required to complete Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Online Training. Access to this online course will be sent out through the Delta email account.

Student Code of Conduct:

Louisiana Delta Community College encourages an environment of academic integrity and mutual respect. Students should read and follow both academic and behavioral expectations identified in the Code of Student Conduct that can be found online at www.ladelta.edu. Students are expected to act with integrity, respect the rights of others, and conduct themselves in a professional manner. The Honor Code prohibits academic misconduct such as cheating, engaging in unauthorized collaboration, and plagiarism. Violations of the Code of Student Conduct may result in disciplinary action as provided in the Code. Incidents are reported through the online Student Conduct system.
