Section		Subject	Title Statement Addressing Counselors: Institution Without Confidential Reporting Procedures

All reports will be investigated. The College does not have procedures for voluntary, confidential reporting of crime statistics. Violations of the law may be referred to law enforcement agencies and, when appropriate, to the College Disciplinary Committee for review. When a potentially dangerous threat to the College arises, timely reports or warnings will be issued through e-mail announcements, the posting of flyers at local campuses, in-class announcements, or other appropriate means.
